

Educational Discounts for Devices

The following list is for convenience only. Eagleview Middle School and Academy School District do not endorse, warranty, or recommend any company or system.

We've gathered some links to sites that offer educational discounts to K-12 students and their families. Some sites, like Apple, offer discounts to college students only. If you find another link to add, please forward it to us and we will add it to this list.

Please also checkout local retailers like BestBuy, Walmart, Target, Office Depot, Staples, etc.

Take our list of minimum device specifications with you when you shop.
